NewLeaf Travel Company Announces Service from Abbotsford Airport

ABBOTSFORD January 6, 2016: The Abbotsford International Airport will have new domestic flights to Winnipeg and Saskatoon beginning in February through NewLeaf Travel Company announced Abbotsford Airport Authority Chair, Dave Holmberg.

The new low-cost flights through NewLeaf Travel Company will begin February 12, 2016 with two weekly flights to Saskatoon, and one weekly flight to Winnipeg. All three flights will connect through to Hamilton, Ontario.

“We are pleased to welcome NewLeaf Travel Company to Abbotsford,” said Abbotsford Mayor Henry Braun. “With our growing population, both locally and regionally, it’s great to see more flight options being offered out of Abbotsford.”

“Abbotsford Airport is always excited to expand opportunities for our customers,” said Airport Authority Chair Dave Holmberg. “It’s great to welcome new business and we wish NewLeaf much success at YXX.”

All flights will be on a Boeing 737-400, 156 seat aircraft. The flight schedule will change in March 2016 with more frequency of flights being added.
